

AGRICULTURAL INVESTMENT GENDER AND LAND IN AFRICA

CAPE TOWN 5-7 MARCH 2014

African Union

Economic Commission for Africa

African Development Bank

Programme

	WEDNESDAY 5 MARCH	THURSDAY 6 MARCH	FRIDAY 7 MARCH
8.30	Registration	Plenary 3: Synthesis of day one and introducing Day 2 Chair: Wangari Kinoti Action Aid (Kenya)  Report backs by rapporteurs on parallel sessions (5 mins each) Written versions collected for circulation and posting online	Plenary 5: Synthesis of day two Chair: Vuyiswa Nxasana Department of Rural Development and Land Reform (South Africa)  Report backs by rapporteurs on parallel sessions (5 mins each) Synthesis report back by team of rapporteurs from working groups (10 mins) Written versions collected for circulation and posting online
9.00	Plenary 1: Opening and keynote address Chair: Hon. Allan Chiyembekeza Pan African Parliament (Malawi)  Welcome: Welcome: Jomo Ntuli, SA Government representative (5mn) Remarks: Tobias Takavarasha or Susan Kaaria, FAO representative (5 min) Remarks: Andries du Toit, PLAAS (5 min) Remarks: Janet Edeme Rural Economy Division, African Union (5 min)  Keynote address Honourable Ambassador Gertrude Mongella  Martha Osorio , FAO: Objectives & methodology of the conference  Plenary discussion: defining the big questions for the conference	Plenary 4: Multi Stakeholder Dialogue Panel  Substantive requirements for an enabling environment for inclusive and gender equitable primary agricultural investment: what must it include?  Chair and facilitator Nikiwe Bikitsha  Panel with talk show format with representatives from different sectors  What is possible in terms of investment models, corporate social responsibility, contractual arrangements, partnerships and policy frameworks?  John Mutunga East Africa Farmers Union (Kenya) George Macharia, Equity Bank Limited (Kenya) Hamza Galiwango, Uganda Investment Authority (Uganda) Esther Obaikol, Uganda Land Alliance (Uganda) Paula Nimpuno Ford Foundation (Southern Africa) Samuel Kiiru Principal Economist National Treasury (Kenya)	Plenary 6 High-level panel on promoting inclusive and equitable agriculture investments. challenges and opportunities  Chair: John Bugri Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (Ghana) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Format: 4 presentations (10 min each) + 3 respondents (5 min each), followed by question and comments from the floor</li> </ul> Francis Sankoh Ministry of Agriculture Forestry and Food Security (Sierra Leone)  Olegário dos Anjos Banze , National Directorate for Promotion of Rural Development, Ministry of State Administration (Mozambique)  Marlamu Maawy , Principal Secretary Ministry of Land (Kenya)  Inutu Etambuyu Suba Regional Center of Mapping of Resources for Development, Zambia  Respondent Stephen Muchiri , Eastern African Farmers Federation (EAFF) Respondent: Henri Minnaar , AgriMentor (NEPAD)
10.30	Tea/Coffee break	Tea/Coffee break	Tea/Coffee break
11.00	Plenary 2: Trends and responses Chair: Nidhi Tandon (NID/CANADA)  Ward Anseeuw CIRAD / Land Matrix: Private investments and large-scale land acquisition trends globally and in Africa  Pascal Liu FAO: Policy and governance responses globally  Sue Mbaya AU/AfDB/UNECA Land Policy Initiative: LPI Guidelines on large-scale land-based investments	Parallel sessions 5-8  Shaping partnerships, business models and contractual arrangements for pro-poor, inclusive and gender-equitable agriculture investments: what must they include?  Contractual arrangements, corporate social responsibility, voice, labour standards, equity shares	Working sessions 3-4: Recommendations: Towards inclusive and gender equitable agriculture investment policies.  A working session devoted to analyzing and prioritizing main points emerged during the two days of work and drafting recommendations for gender equitable and responsible agricultural investment policies and regulatory frameworks at national, regional and global level (CFS rai, AU/AfDB/UNECA LPI guidelines on LSLBI, regional frameworks)  Working groups will be organized by sectors
13.00	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch

14.00	Parallel sessions 1-4  Primary agriculture investments and their implications from a gender perspective: Who benefits and who loses out?  Evidence from the ground from different business models/ Harvesting from good practices	Parallel sessions 9-12  Enabling environments for fostering agriculture investments conducive to poverty reduction, gender equality and food security.  Policy and regulatory frameworks, accountability mechanisms, governance and monitoring mechanisms, PPP	Plenary 8: Concluding conversation This session will start at 14.30 and will finish at 16.00  Presentation of sectoral recommendations and reflections on next steps Chair: Lindiwe Sibanda FANRPAN (to be confirmed)  Reflections from participants, from different perspectives: what have we learned, what action do we need to take?  Closing remarks and thanks (PLAAS)
15.30	Tea/Coffee break	Tea/Coffee break
16.00-17.30	Open Fair: Networking and sharing experiences Facilitator: Nancy Kachingwe (Malawi)  Open space session, 3 minutes spot presentations, posters space, book launches, video and publications display (all 3 mins unless otherwise stated)  Benard Chitunga , Kenya Co-operative University College (Kenya): Public and private sectors partnering with ATC in the provision of trainings and consultancies  Jules Kazungu (Rwanda) Public-private partnership to enhance utilization of improved seed of autogamous crops: A case for beans in Rwanda  Grace Tepula , Rural Women's Assembly (Zambia): RWA vision for gender-equitable investment and case studies of better examples  Eunice Adhiambo , Ujamaa Centre (Kenya): Seaweed farming in the Kenyan Coast; a sustainable alternative to fisheries and mainland farming  Darlene Miller , PLAAS (South Africa): Speak Lioness Speak: Pan African Land Hearing documentary (20 mins)  More contributions welcome	Working sessions. Multi-stakeholder reflection session on enabling environment, business models and partnerships for inclusive and gender-equitable agricultural investments  Participants identify the elements of an enabling environment – including policy, law, institutions, finance, infrastructure, and partnerships and business models– for inclusive and gender-equitable agricultural investments. Participants will identify which actors are responsible for these, and will formulate concrete recommendations for different sectors.  Within the same thematic area, researchers reflect on the main topics/areas where further research is needed to inform policy-making and on how to build networks and partnerships for more effective devolution and uptake of research.	Departures
17.30	Drinks reception Drumming session	Depart by bus
19.30	Welcome dinner	Dinner at Moyo Restaurant, Cape Town

Parallel session 1–4: Primary agriculture investments and their implications from a gender perspective: Who benefits and who loses out?

Wed 5 March	Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	Session 4
14.00-15.30	Chair: Fatima Shabodien , Action Aid (South Africa)  Gertrude Dzifa Torvikey Centre for Gender Studies and Advocacy, University of Ghana (Ghana): Farm to Factory gendered segmentation and segregation of agro-processing employment: Evidence from Blue Skies  Charlotte Wonani independent (Zambia): Gender implications of two agriculture investments in Zambia  Samuel Gebreselassie (Ethiopia): Land markets and the challenge of sustainable development among rural women, youth and poor households in Ethiopia: Evidence from panel data	Chair: Agnes Kirabo , Uganda Land Alliance (Uganda)  Andriamanalina Ranaivobarjaona &amp; Seheny Beby Land Observatory (Madagascar): Impacts of two business models – large-scale plantation versus contract farming – involving the same enterprise type and crop  Darlene Miller Institute for Poverty, Land and Agrarian Studies, University of the Western Cape (South Africa): Engendering the struggle for the commons: African women and spatial contestations over land in Africa  Freedom Mazwi African Institute for Agrarian Studies (Zimbabwe): Contract farming, rural livelihoods and gender relations	Chair: Edah Chimya (Zambia)  Roberta Pelizzoli University of Bologna (Italy): Gender implications of three agricultural foreign land investments in Mozambique: Promising approaches in a conflictual scenario  Rudo Chingono &amp; Clemence Nhliziyo Ruzivo Trust (Zimbabwe): Querying the economic benefits of the Chisumbanje Biofuel Investment  Jordan Chamberlin Indaba Agricultural Policy Research Institute (Zambia): Gender-differentiated rural land rental market participation in Zambia	Chair: Hamza Galiwango , Uganda Investment Authority (Uganda)  Nidhi Tandon Action Aid (Kenya/USA) Gender implications of investment and the food/fuel nexus in Malawi  Hanson Nyantakyi-Frimpong University of Western Ontario (Ghana/Canada): Farmland enclosure, gender and the political ecology of rural livelihoods in northern Ghana  Clara Park FAO: The gender implications of multi-flower horticulture investment in Northern Tanzania and Tamale Fruit company contract farming in Ghana
	Discussant  Rudo Chakwera , Farmers Union of Malawi  Nonkosi Tyolwana , Ministry of Women, Children and People with Disabilities, South Africa	Discussant  Takunda Shava , Outgrower manager, Cia. Vanduzi	Discussant  Wangari Kinoti , Action Aid (Kenya)	Discussant  Maurine Magubane , Women in Agriculture and Rural Development (South Africa)

Parallel session 5–8: Shaping partnerships, business models and contractual arrangements for pro-poor, inclusive and gender-equitable agriculture investments: what must they include?

Thurs 6 March	Session 5: Business models/contractual arrangements/CSR	Session 6: Business models/contractual arrangements/CSR	Session 7: Innovative Approaches	Session 8: Participation, leadership and collective action
11.00-13.00	Chair: Atsede Assefa, Chief Economist (Ethiopia) Emmanuel Sulle Future Agricultures / PLAAS (SA): Outgrowers' contracts in sugar production at Kilombero, Tanzania Sane Zuka and Blessings Chinsinga (Malawi): Illovo sugar outgrower model in Malawi Craig MacGillivray, Solms Delta (South Africa) Takunda Shava, Outgrower manager, Cia. Vanduzi (Mozambique)	Chair: Nancy Kachingwe, ILC Africa region coordinator Chrispin Matenga Future Agricultures / Department of Development Studies, University of Zambia (Zambia): Outgrowers schemes and benefit sharing among women and men Vera Rocca Future Agricultures / Carleton University (Canada): A Gender Analysis of Investment in Sugarcane Outgrowing for Smallholders in Magobbo, Zambia Enok Ndongole Managing Director at Southern Highlands Agricultural Development Co. LTD (Tanzania) To be confirmed, Industrial Development Corporation (South Africa)	Chair: Bernard Chitunga (Kenya) Jennifer Duncan Landesa (USA) Land for equity: Alternative compensation models for large-scale investments in agricultural land Lawrence Attipoe SNV (Zimbabwe): Presentation on SNV approaches and experiences of success and failures, including on gender inclusion. Rob Munro Musika (Zambia): Technical support and training to private sector entities in the agricultural market system that are committed to working with the rural poor as their suppliers, consumers, clients or employees Erika Schutze, Monitoring &amp; Evaluation Manager   TechnoServe (South Africa)	Chair: Evelyn Nguleka, Zambia National Farmers Union (Member of WFO) (Zambia) Val Payne Sustaining the Wild Coast (South Africa): Integrated village based leadership and skills development programme Helen Dancer Future Agricultures Consortium / University of Brighton (UK): Gender and the New Alliance and Land Transparency Partnership for Tanzania Godfrey Massay Hakhiardi (Tanzania): Land rights training for land rights monitors Dimuna Phiri &amp; Ceasar Katebe Zambia Land Alliance (Zambia): Consultation and participation by different stakeholders in large-scale land investments in Zambia (including short video)
	Discussant George Macharia, Equity Bank (Kenya)	Discussant Dawie Maree, Agri South Africa (South Africa) Stephen Kumadoh, Lands Commission (Ghana)	Discussant Steven Jonkheere International Fund for Agricultural Development (Italy)	Discussant Themba Chauke La Via Campesina/Landless People Movement (South Africa) Marian Goodie Sowonle, Ministry of Social Welfare Gender and Children's Affairs (Sierra Leone)

Parallel session 9–12: Enabling environments for fostering agriculture investments conducive to poverty reduction, gender equality and food security

Thurs 6 March	Session 9: Public-private partnership	Session 10: CAADP	Session 11: Legal and policy frameworks	Session 12: International governance and monitoring frameworks
14.00-15.30	Chair: Jullet Kalruki Tanzania Investment Centre (Tanzania) Victoria Anlaku Ghana Commercial Agriculture Project (GCAP) Connie Masaba Ministry of Agriculture (Uganda): Vegetable oil development Nicholas Nyathi GRAD project SNV-Netherlands Development Organisation/USAID: Creating and building sustainable input and output markets for food insecure households by promoting private sector investments: A case of Public Private Partnerships in Ethiopia	Chair: Marc Wegerif Oxfam GB (Tanzania) Fatou Mbaye ACCORD (UK) CAADP's role in supporting pro-poor, inclusive and gender-equitable investment. To what extent do National Agricultural Investment Plans (NAIPs), agricultural policies and budgets promote pro-poor, inclusive and gender-equitable agriculture investments? Shingaidzo Mupindu (FAORAF) Women's Land Access and Tenure Rights in Africa (WoLATRA) under the CAADP Regional Initiative Ruchi Tripari ACTIONAID (UK): From Rhetoric to Action: Walking the Talk for Women Smallholders Rudo Makunike NEPAD (South Africa)	Chair: Mariam Maawy Ministry of Land (Kenya) John Bugri KNUST/KUMASI (Ghana): The role of improved land governance through regulatory and institutional framework development Jennifer Duncan Landesa (USA): Women's land tenure security framework: Understanding and addressing women's tenure issues in the face of public and private investments in land Loveness Msofi Malawi Ministry of Agriculture and Food Security (Malawi): Impacts of agriculture development projects on gender relations in farming households in Blantyre Rural, Malawi Martin Mutegi Ministry of Devolution and Planning (Kenya)	Chair: Sue Mbaya AU AfDB UNECA Land Policy Initiative (South Africa) Augustine Mandigora Oxfam GB (UK): Behind the brand initiative Hopewell Zheke Practical Action (Zimbabwe): A framework and possible indicator questions to assess whether governments have in place the right conditions to facilitate smallholders' participation in markets George Schoneveld CIFOR (Kenya): Governing global farmland structural challenges for sustainability investments in sub-Saharan Africa Timothy Fella USAID (USA): Proposal to establish a Global Development Alliance as a public-private partnership aimed at reducing land tenure risks posed to both local communities and private sector investors
	Discussants: Caleb Gumisizira Uganda National Farmers Federation (Uganda) Emmanuel Sulle Future Agricultures / PLAAS (SA / Tanzania)	Discussants: Willigis Mbogoro Tanzania Federation of Cooperatives Ltd (Tanzania) Francis Sankoh Ministry of Agriculture Forestry and Food Security (Sierra Leone)	Discussants: Vicente Adriano União Nacional dos Camponeses (Mozambique) (La Via Campesina) Christopher Mbewe Department of Policy and Planning (Zambia)	Discussants: Rasford Kalamatla Department of Agriculture (Zambia) Pascal Liu Economic and Social Development Department. FAO (Italy)

SPONSORED BY:

