

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

DAY	TIME	SESSION
1	09h00	Registration and coffee
	10h00	Welcome and Introduction to the conference
	11h00	Plenary 1
	12h30	LUNCH
	14h00	Panels A1-A3
	15h30	COFFEE
	16h00-17h30	Panels B1-B3
2	09h00	Plenary 2
	10h30	COFFEE
	11h00	Panels C1-C3
	13h00	LUNCH
	14h00	Panels D1-D3
	15h30	COFFEE
	16h00-17h30	Land grabbing game
3	09h00	Plenary 3
	10h30	COFFEE
	11h00	Panels E1-E3
	13h00	LUNCH
	14h00	Panels F1-F2
	15h30	COFFEE
	16h00-17h30	Plenary 4

SCHEDULE OF ROOMS AND SESSION TITLES

DAY	TIME	SESSION	ROOM
1	10h00	Welcome	LR A113
	11h00 Plenary 1	Labour and the Green Economy	LR A102
	12h30 Panel A1	Critical Understanding of large-scale policies	LR A102
	12h30 Panel A2	"Communities" and Conservation	LR A103
	12h30 Panel A3	Representing Environmental causes	LR A104
	16h00 Panel B1	Knowledge, Representation and Outcomes	LR A102
	16h00 Panel B2	Engaging rural groups in conservation initiatives	LR A103
	16h00 Panel B3	Extractive industries, communities and development: interdisciplinary perspectives on resource, livelihood and cultural change	LR A104

2	09h00 Plenary 2	Carbon and Livelihoods	LR A103
	11h00 Panel C1	Understanding the Green Economy	LR A102
	11h00 Panel C2	Political economy and Justice in the Green Economy	LR A103
	11h00 Panel C3	Natural Resource Management, Governance and Neoliberalisation	LR A104
	14h00 Panel D1	Extractive industries and the Green Economy	LR A102
	14h00 Panel D2	Political ecologies of carbon in Africa	LR A103
	14h00 Panel D3	The political ecology of REDD+ in Indonesia	LR A104
	16h00	Land grabbing game	LR A104

3	09h00 Plenary 3	Biofuels and the 'greening' of the global South	LR A104
	11h00 Panel E1	Marginalisation, Land, Identity and Conservation	LR A102
	11h00 Panel E2	Forestry, Carbon and Livelihoods	LR A103
	11h00 Panel E3	What grabbing? Natural resources and changing land relations in the Great Lakes Region	LR A104
	14h00 Panel F1	Large Agricultural Projects and the Green Economy	LR A102
	14h00 Panel F2	Tourist related initiatives	LR A103
	16h00 Plenary 4	Comment and Reflection	LR A113

Session	Speaker	Topic
Welcome	Vice Chancellor Idris Kikula and Colleagues	Introduction to the Conference
Plenary 1: Labour and the Green Economy	Nitin Rai + Tor Ave Benjaminsen	Conservation, crop-loss and coffee: Adverse effects of banning customary practices in an Indian tiger reserve
	Maano Ramutsindela	Extractive philanthropy: New strategies for securing labour for the conservation enterprise
Panel A1: Critical Understanding of large-scale policies	Frank Matose	Nature state local people and resistance in Southern Africa
	Connor Joseph Cavanagh	Enclosure, dispossession, and the 'Green Economy': New contours of internal displacement in Liberia & Sierra Leone
	Adrian Nel	Carbon forestry and sacrifice zones: A critical geography of neoliberal environmental governance in Uganda
Panel A2: "Communities" and conservation	Jessica Pouchet	Communication and negotiation of value in participatory forest management: An ethnographic approach to exchange in the nature reserves of Tanzania's Eastern Arc
	Mathew Senga	"In local collaboration we trust": The dynamics of trust network relationships in Collaborative Natural Resource Management in Tanzania
	Jevgeniy Bluwstein	If Tanzanian WMAs are community-based natural resource management projects, then what are the communities and how do they participate?
Panel A3: Representing environmental causes	Manali Baruah	The ultimate expansion: The commodification of nature and democratization as (neo) liberalization of forest governance in Africa
	Fredrick Kisekka-Ntale	The Mabira debacle and environmental activism in Uganda: A societal rejection of destructive capitalism?
	Celeste Alexander	Claims made, unmade, and avoided: Environmental governance in and around a Tanzanian Wildlife Management Area
Panel B1: Knowledge, representation and outcomes	Meaghan Daly	Producing knowledge for the Green Economy: Examining climate knowledge networks in East Africa
	Stavros Afionis	Greening the economy via biofuels: Brazilian ethanol diplomacy in Africa
	Sarah Bracking	Non-outcomes in climate governance
Panel B2: Engaging rural groups in conservation initiatives	Ruth John	Evaluating sustainability of privatisation and community participation in decision making over natural resource management
	Abiud Kaswamila	Assessing the status of human-red colobus monkeys conflict and its implication to peoples' livelihoods in Jozani Chwaka Bay National Park Zanzibar
	Yassin Mkwizu	Enhancing knowledge on climate change and green agriculture at local level using storytelling
Panel B3: Extractive industries, communities & development: Inter-disciplinary perspectives on resource, livelihood and cultural change	Fabiana Li	Rethinking extraction: Approaches to materiality, ontologies, and knowledge in the anthropology of mining
	Glenn Banks	Local understandings of mining livelihood changes in Melanesia: Reconciling the external and internal dimensions of change
	Jessica Budds	Mineral extraction and hydrosocial change: (Re)producing waterscapes in the southern Peruvian Andes

Session	Speaker	Topic
Plenary 2: Carbon and livelihoods	Albert A Arhin	Are livelihoods gaining or being threatened in an era of green economy? Insights from policy discourses on livelihoods in REDD+ policies of Ghana, Kenya and Zambia
	Rebecca Howard	Unraveling the notion of “fair carbon”: key challenges for standards development.
	Thabit Jacob	Learning from the other: Benefit sharing lessons for REDD+ implementation based on CBFM experience in Northern Tanzania
	Baruani Mshale	Why REDD+ remains elusive and how to make it work in human-dominated miombo ecosystems of South-Eastern Tanzania?
Panel C1: Understanding the Green Economy	Anne Hennings	The impact of power structures on Green Economy investments
	Carl Death	Green economy discourses in Africa
	Thomas Smith	What is carbon? Conceptualising carbon and carbon capabilities in the context of community-based sequestration projects in the global South
	Karen Ferreira-Meyers	Indigenous ecology in Southern African crime novels
Panel C2: Political economy and justice in the Green Economy	Brett Matulis	Uneven (conservation) development
	Francis Masse	Wildlife economies, environmental asset protection, and a new conservation frontier: Privatised wildlife conservation in the Mozambique-South Africa borderlands
	Hanne Svarstad	Environmental injustice in conservation: Evidence from Tanzania and Uganda
	Michela Marcatelli	More green, less blue? Exploring the political economy of water resources in the Waterberg, South Africa
Panel C3: NRM, governance and neoliberalisation	Agrippinah Namara	Payment for ecosystem services and local representation: Lessons from Hoima District, Uganda.
	Victor Wright	Irony and resistance in the Tanzanian green economy
	Melis Ece	Governing through neoliberalism: REDD+ pilot projects and struggles over access to village land and forests in Lindi and Kilosa, Tanzania.
	Mathew Bukhi	Unpacking benefit sharing in collaborative forestry: The political ecology of Joint Forest Management in Tanzania
Panel D1: Extractive industries & the Green Economy	Nancy A. Rushohora	Fact or Fiction? Community imagination of the Mtwara natural gas and its eternal benefits
	Thomas Frederiksen	Greening the extractive economy: CSR and mining from Canadian pressures to African impacts
Panel D4: Political ecologies of carbon in Africa	Ishmael Hashmiu& Albert Arhin	Carbon offsets&agricultural livelihoods: Lessons from a carbon credit project in Ghana’s Transition Zone
	Joanes Atela	The political ecology of agricultural carbon finance: The case of Kenya Agricultural Carbon Project
	Martin Kijazi	Climate emergency, carbon capture, and coercing conservation on Mt. Kilimanjaro
	Vupenyu Dzingira	Rural disenfranchisement through carbon: The case of Kariba REDD, Zimbabwe
Panel D3: The political	Peter Howson	Powers of intimate exclusion within Sungai Lamandau’s REDD+ communities
	Rini Astuti	Counter mapping&the complexity of ‘intimate engagement’ between carbon conservation mechanisms& critical

Session	Speaker	Topic
ecology of REDD+ in Indonesia		resistance to 'land grabbing'
	Rowan Dixon	REDD+ global value chains and private finance in Indonesia
Land Grabbing Game	An Ansoms and Colleagues
Plenary 3: Biofuels and the 'greening' of the global South	Festus Boamah	How and why chiefs formalise land use in recent times: The politics of land dispossession through biofuels investments in Ghana
	Linda Engström	The end of large scale land acquisitions in Africa?
	Stefano Ponte	Sustainability initiatives in the biofuel sector: What do they mean for the global South?
Panel E1: Marginalisation, land, identity and conservation	Stasjs Koot	Living in Bwabwata National Park, Namibia: How tourism& conservation strategies turn dwellers into lodgers
	Faustine Maganga	Resisting BINGO-sponsored conservation Tanzania: Community response to AWF-supported conservation projects in Babati and Longido Districts
	Godfrey Massay & Valentin Ngorisa	Wildlife management and the plight for pastoralists in Tanzania: A case of Wildlife Management Areas
	Alicia Davis & Melissa Harkavy	Land ownership as a human right: "We have seen the light and we cannot go back into the dark again"
Panel E2: Forestry, carbon and livelihoods	Alex Dorgan	Carbon forestry, trade-offs in ecosystem services, and local knowledge: Insights from rural Kilombero, Tanzania
	Mette Olwig	Land based investments for forests in Tanzania: Green growth or greenwashing?
	Kangalawe et al	Green politics, food security and sovereignty in Tanzania
	Flora Hadju	Conservation for carbon or communities? Swedish climate and community forestry initiatives in Uganda&Tanzania
Panel E3: What grabbing? Natural resources and changing land relations in the Great Lakes Region	Aymar Nyenyezi	L'idéologie de la sécurisation foncière au Burundi : Domination, pouvoir et 'agenceité'
	Guisepe Cioffo	Not a good year for us: Imaginary vs. living ecologies in Rwanda
	Klara Claessens	"Without plantations, I cannot survive": Negotiated access to the agricultural plantations in the territory of Kalehe, South Kivu, DRC
	Emery Mudinga	L'accaparement des terres en zone de conflits : rôles des forces armées à l'Est de la RDC
	An Ansoms	From individual patchwork to large-scale collective marshland cultivation in rural Rwanda: The ambiguous role of cooperatives in commercial agriculture
Panel F1: Carbon and livelihoods	Theodros Woldegiorgis Atreso	Natural resources, livelihoods and socio-cultural dynamics: A case study of a transnational agricultural project in Bako Tibe (Ethiopia)
	Josh Maiyo	Ecological consequences of large scale land acquisitions and agricultural modernisation in Central Uganda
Panel F2: Tourist related initiatives	Joseph K Muriithi	Certification in ecotourism: Review of experiences and impacts of using "green credentials" in ecotourism practice in Kenya
	Melanie Stroebel	Green Economy: Securing a future for tourism?
Plenary 4	Panel of commentators	Reflection and Next Steps